SECURITY COMES FIRST AT PERIMETER PROTECTION

Professional, practical, personal – Perimeter Protection.

At Europe's largest exhibition for perimeter protection, fencing and building security, you will meet a high-calibre professional audience including security managers from industry, commerce and transport as well as specialist planners, plant planners, installation contractors and representatives of official bodies and municipalities.

Be part of a group of highly specialised exhibitors showcasing security solutions, protective measures and active and passive security systems. Find out about innovations, share information with trade visitors and get to know your future customers.

The SURE PATH to your business success.
